AIOH25 Conference

The AIOH25 CES and conference program is fast approaching, and this year's theme, "Evolution, Insights, Into Impacts", captures the heart of our profession as occupational hygienists.

Held in stunning Sydney, NSW, the conference will explore the ongoing evolution of occupational hygiene - shaped by legislative change, technological advancement, and the rising expectations of modern workplaces.

Key topics include training and inspiring the next generation, navigating legislative impacts, embracing new technologies and methodologies, and re-evaluating how we manage workplace health risks. Review the full program here to plan your AIOH25 experience and be part of shaping the future of our profession.

2025 Organising Committee

AIOH sincerely thanks the conference committee for their invaluable support and assistance in 2025.

Conference Chair: Kerry McDougall, Principal Occupational Hygienist, Occupational Hygiene Consulting Pty Ltd

Scientific Programme Chair: Mark Rawlings, Inspector, SafeWork NSW

Committee Members:

Congratulations to our early bird competition winners!

This year two fantastic prizes were available for Early Bird conference attendees.

Two Free Half-Day Continuing Educations Sessions

This prize was available to the first 100 early bird registrants who purchased a full conference ticket. First time full conference attendees were eligible to receive double entries to increase their chances of winning.

Jet Boat Ride for Two

This prize was available to all Early Bird registrants (including full-time and part-time students). The lucky winner and a guest will enjoy an exhilarating jet boat ride on Sydney Harbour scheduled for 30th November 2025.

Congratulations to our winners and all who registered early!

With thanks to our 2025 conference sponsors

Emerging Hygienists Group (EHG)

Ready to test your knowledge and have a bit of fun before the official conference begins?

Join the EHG on Sunday 30th November from 4:15pm for the Big Fat (Hygiene) Quiz of the Year — a lively and interactive session where your hygiene know-how (and general trivia skills) will be put to the test.

Whether you go solo or team up with colleagues, this quiz is all about friendly competition, laughs, and the chance to win a prize or two. More than just a fun event, it's also a fantastic way to break the ice and meet others in a relaxed, informal setting.

The quiz wraps up just in time to roll into the Newcomers Speed Networking session at 5:00pm, making it the perfect double-header to kick off your AIOH25 experience. We'd love to see both new and familiar faces — head to Meeting Room C2.4, Level 2 at the ICC and get involved!

Newcomers Speed Networking

If you're attending the AIOH Conference for the first time, this is the perfect opportunity to dive in and start building lasting connections. Join us for the Newcomers Networking Event — a vibrant and welcoming gathering designed especially for those new to the conference and the profession.

Happening on Sunday 30th November from 5:00pm in the Parkside Pre-Function Area, Level 2 at the ICC, this event offers a relaxed setting to meet fellow delegates, share experiences, and expand your professional network.

Whether you're just starting out in occupational hygiene or stepping into a new phase of your career, this is your chance to connect with like-minded peers and start forming the relationships that will support your journey.

Enjoy engaging conversations and go in the draw to win some great lucky door prizes. It's the ideal way to break the ice before the full conference program begins — we look forward to welcoming you!

Mentor Workshop

All AIOH members are invited to attend this engaging and interactive session to learn more about the AIOH Mentoring Program.

Whether you're an experienced professional considering becoming a mentor, or an emerging practitioner seeking guidance as a mentee, this session offers practical tools, strategies, and insights to support the development of meaningful and effective mentoring relationships.

Mentorship plays a vital role in the continued growth and excellence of the occupational hygiene profession. It facilitates the sharing of knowledge, nurtures leadership, and helps ensure that critical skills and experience are passed on to the next generation. For mentors, it's a chance to give back and help shape the future of the profession. For mentees, it provides valuable support, encouragement, and access to real-world insights that accelerate learning and professional development.

Join us to find out how you can get involved, enhance your career journey, and contribute to building a stronger, more connected occupational hygiene community.

And don't miss your chance to win some exciting lucky door prizes! Join us on Monday 1st of December from 7:15am.

The Debate

Back by popular demand, the AIOH25 Debate returns to spark thought, provoke discussion, and stir up some healthy competition! This lively session will see two teams of three go head-to-head, tackling one of the most pressing and provocative questions facing our profession today: "Replacing Brains with Bytes: Can AI Make Better Calls than Occupational Hygienists?"

Is artificial intelligence an essential tool advancing the practice of occupational hygiene, or does it present more risks and uncertainties than it's worth? Can data-driven decisions truly rival the experience, intuition and contextual judgement of a trained professional?

Moderated by an impartial facilitator, the debate will feature strong arguments on both sides — and the final verdict rests with you. Attendees will have the chance to vote on which team made the most compelling case.

Whether you're an AI enthusiast, a sceptic, or somewhere in between, this is a must-attend session that promises sharp insights, engaging commentary, and maybe a few laughs along the way. Rally your colleagues, bring your curiosity, and join the conversation shaping the future of our profession.

Join us on Wednesday 3rd of December from 10:45am - 11:30am

About the Sue Davies Foundation

The Sue Davies Foundation, as trustee for the Sue Davies Scholarship Trust, provides vital support for individuals looking to advance their careers in occupational hygiene. The foundation aims to help promising professionals grow in the field and become catalysts for the development of occupational hygiene in their own countries. The Sue Davies Award was created in honor of the late Sue Davies, whose invaluable contributions helped establish the Occupational Hygiene Training Association (OHTA). Sue was a key figure during the early years, providing wise counsel and driving the creation of an international training scheme and qualifications framework.

The Pitch!

New to this year's AIOH Annual Conference is The Pitch – a high-energy, TED-style platform designed to bring ideas to life.

More than just a presentation, The Pitch will allow selected exhibitors to step out from behind the booth and into the spotlight. In just five minutes and five slides, presenters will showcase a product, share an idea, or deliver a compelling solution that aligns with our 2025 conference theme: "Evolution: Insights into Impacts."

Held during the peak buzz of the lunch breaks in the heart of the networking area of The Gallery, The Pitch will offer conference attendees and exhibitors an opportunity to engage beyond the booth. It's a chance to spark conversations, demonstrate innovation, and connect directly with Australia's leading work health and safety professionals.

Whether you're an exhibitor sharing a bold innovation or a conference attendee seeking a practical solution, The Pitch is an opportunity to inspire, influence, and leave a lasting impression on the AIOH community.
