AIOH and Our Vision

The Australian Institute of Occupational Hygienists (AIOH) was established in 1980 and is the peak organisation representing professionals working in occupational hygiene in Australia. Membership of AIOH is open to both professional occupational hygienists and to those with an interest in worker health protection and a healthier work environment. It is the largest organisation in Australia representing occupational hygienists with over 1,500 members.

The AIOH is dedicated to raising public and worker health awareness by preventing workplace ill health through the promotion of occupational hygiene science and practice.

Our institute offers a range of services and resources to support this mission, including:

- Membership for Occupational Hygienists and enthusiasts
- Professional certification
- Conferences and events
- Webinars
- Publications and position papers
- Submissions and advocacy
- Consultant listings

Our VISION is to promote worker health and wellbeing. We strive to be recognised as the peak scientific body whose members are highly regarded and effective in protecting worker health and the health of our communities.

In working toward the achievement of this vision, our MISSION; A healthy working environment for ALL by:

Raising Standards

Advocacy & Influence

Operational Excellence

Enhance Profile

Professionalism

Why become a sponsor?

The AIOH Annual Scientific Conference and Exhibition is a premier national event in the workplace health and safety sector, bringing together a leading technical program alongside a vibrant exhibition showcasing top products, services, and research from Australia and beyond.

In 2026, the AIOH community gathers under a theme forged with purpose: Iron to the Fire - Strengthening Occupational Hygiene. Iron, the 26th element, aligns with the year 2026 and offers a powerful symbol of the strength, resilience, and evolution of our profession.

The conference offers a unique platform to connect, share, and grow through technical sessions, networking, and engaging social events.

SPONSORING THE AIOH ANNUAL CONFERENCE WILL GIVE YOU THE OPPORTUNITY TO:

- Partner with industry aligned organisations
- Share knowledge across the occupational hygiene community in Australia and globally
- Connect with CEOs, decision-makers, and emerging professionals
- Support career growth through networking and knowledge exchange
- Boost brand visibility among AIOH members and beyond
