

Tuesday 29 September		ALISON MARGARY BOHS President Elect-Chair and Kirsty Phillips as committee representative
MORNING Learning Zone	Online content, pre-recorded webinars, new course details, free tasters and training provider information.
AFTERNOON Live session: Competence and education panel session	Helen Taylor Using exposure assessment tools for interactive education	Thomas Fuller Building capacity through education communication and collaboration	Nancy McClellan Collaborations in impacting global occupational hygiene competency
Ignite session Ignite is a concept which asks presenters to enlighten us but make it quick with 20 slides in five minutes advancing every 15 seconds. Technical presentations delivered with humour, passion and enthusiasm from a wide range of speakers.	Water safety plans; an opportunity for fully integrated water safety	Light off and sleep well	Day-to-day issues for occupational hygienists (or an ode to the unsung heroes of our time)	Workplace Health Without Borders (WHWB)

Wednesday 30 September		KELVIN WILLIAMS BOHS President-Chair and Dave Flower as committee representative
MORNING Live session: COVID-19	Kelvin Williams – chair with panel members: Rob Aitken, John Cherrie, Ray Agius and John Dobbie Panel debate session chaired by BOHS President Kelvin Williams: 'COVID-19 risk matrix' Paul Humphrey Face fit challenges and COVID-19
AFTERNOON Live session: Infrastructure	Duncan Smith HSE intervention with legionella third-party service providers	Lee Heffernan Industrial hygiene emergency response plans – development and drilling	Lucetta Weaver Raising capability in industrial hygiene emergency response	Adrian Parris Legionella risk reduction via enhanced microbiological analysis

Thursday 1 October		JOHN DOBBIE BOHS Immediate Past President-Chair and Katie Gray as committee representative
MORNING Live session: Thermal and heat	Pedro Collins Welding and hot work – advances to work controls driven by new manganese (Mn) exposure limit	Simon Hodder International standards for the thermal environment – the current perspective	Richard Topliss Working in the Middle East	Josh Foster The Heat-Shield Project Ensuring the health and safety of workers exposed to environment heat stress in different industrial sectors
AFTERNOON Live sessions: Noise and vibration	Andrei Feraru Enhancement in hand arm vibration monitoring technology and technique	Peter Wilson Open source noise control database – accessing the low hanging risk reduction fruit	Dave Greenberg A hearing health innovation case study – don't be passive
Moving Breathe Freely forward internationally, The Antipodeans approach	Chris Keen, Neil Pickering, Sharann Johnson, Laura Sands				